Senior History

At 9:00 one September morning in 1949, twenty-nine young people gathered at Uniontown High School to begin their high school careers. That year we chose Jo Ann Richard for President, Esther McKee as Vice-President, Norma Cooney as Secretary & Treasurer, Elizabeth Chamberlain as Reporter, and Mr. Leslie Dixon as sponsor.

We had three very successful parties that year. The first was a hay rack ride to Elm Creek Lake, the second was a skating party at Fort Scott, the third was another skating party at Fort Scott.

We began our Sophomore year with twenty-eight students. Officers for the year were: President, Roger Heckman; Vice-President, Fred Hunziker; Secretary & Treasurer, Albert Ward; Reporter, Jo Ann Richard; and sponsor, Mr. Leslie Dixon.

Twelve members of our class--Fred Hunziker, Virginia Christy, Roger Heckman, Esther Ann McKee, Richard Adamson, Nettie Pearson, Gilbert Smith, Jo Griffith, Richard Clark, Jo Ann Richard, Richard Ramsey, and Margaret Hammons--were waiters and waitressess at the Junior-Senior Banquet.

We began our Junior year with twenty-eight members. Officers for the year were: President, Roger Heckman; Vice-President, Jo Griffith; Secretary & Treasurer, Mary Lee Williams; Reporter, Esther Ann McKee; and sponsor Miss Irene Meyers.

One of the big events of the year was our play "Here Comes Charlie". The cast included, Richard Wilson, Raymon Hartman, Roger Heckman, Elvin Hunziker, Richard Clark, Esther McKee, Jo Griffith, Norma Cooney, Margaret Hammons, and Mary Lee Williams. The class is unanimous in saying that the success of the play was due to the unfailing guidance of Mrs. Alta Underwood, Mrs. Betty Wilson, and Miss Irene Meyers.

The Junior Class was responsible for selling the refreshments at the home football and basketball games. The money obtained was used for the Junior-Senior Banquet.

Our Junior Class provided a memorable night for the Seniors of '52 at the annual Junior-Senior Banquet. The theme was an "Hawaiian Night".

During our last year when we were those very dignified Seniors, we elected the following officers: President, Roger Heckman; Vice-President, Albert Ward; Secretary & Treasurer, Mary Lee Williams; Reporter, Margaret Hammons; and sponsor, Heloise Moore. Our class enrollment was twenty-five.

Our first party of the year was a weiner roast at Gunn Park. The transportation was in the back of Ruth Hunt's truck.

One of the tasks of the year was putting out our annual. We are looking forward to having the Senior Play, and we are also looking forward to our skip day.

We feel that we have been very successful during our four years of high school and much of this success is due to the faculty and our sponsors, Leslie Dixon, Irene Meyers, and Heloise Moore.

Senior Will

We the Seniors of 1953 being of sound mind, (if you can imagine that) leave our most cherished treasures to all our friends.

I, Richard Adamson, will my nickname,"Reverend", to my little brother, Paul, and my curly hair to Gene Christy.

I, Jerry Bradbury, will my ability to type to my little brother, Billy, and my red hair to Pat Sipe.

I, Warren Chambers, will my good grades to Jerry Smith, and my grin to Virginia Crim.

I, Richard Clark, will my nickname,"Doug", to Ronnie Taylor, and my old girl friends to Don Crim.

I, Norma Cooney, will my nickname, "Flossy", to Nancy Stainbrook, and my giggles to Joan Bruner.

I, Barbara Eisenhouer, will my kneepads to James Armstrong, and my nickname,"Ike", to my little brother, Bobby.

I, Larry Farrell, will my long ears to Bobby Eisenhouer, and my long legs to Rodney Robinson.

I, Jo Griffith, leave my basketball ability to Charlene George, and my loud mouth to Janette Ludlum.

I, Margaret Hammons, will my A's to Norman Stine, and my ability to catch a Taylor to Carol Hunt.

I, Raymon Hartman, will my American History book to anyone who wants it, and my blue eyes to Florence Stainbrook.

I, Roger Heckman, will my broken collar bones to Bill Nuzum, and my way with arguing with the teachers to Ronald Robinson.

I, George Holt, will my stupidness to Bernard Stine, and my ability to punch holes in the ceiling of the wash room to Jim Holt.

I, Ruth Hunt, leave my quietness to Mary Smith, and my ability to get my studies to Glen Tuggle.

I, Elvin Hunziker, will my ability to get excused absences for going hunting to Dan Ramsey.

I, Fred Hunziker, will my height to Carol Hunt, and leave Karen to be wooed but not won to Paul Adamson.

I, Esther McKee, leave my sweet little giggle to anyone who wants it, and my ability to get tickled to Bob Russell.

I, Nettie Pearson, will a couple of pounds of my flesh to Bertha Semler, and my quietness to Glen Tuggle.

I, Richard Ramsey, will my hunting ability to "Butch" Grimes, and my loud voice to Marvin Mason.

I, Virginia Ramsey, will my ability to write notes to Shirley Cowan, and my brown eyes to Joan Typer.

I, Gilbert Smith, will my school skipping ability to Bob Russell, and my basketball suit to Don Spainhoward.

I, Don Swisher, will my good looks to Anita Wilson, and my ability to get along with teachers to Joan Bruner.

I, Jeane Walker, leave my red hair to Audra Swisher, and my basketball suit to Bertha Semler.

I, Albert Ward, will my gold tooth to Chester Crim and my old girl friends to Roy Williams.

I, Mary Williams, will my job in the office to Shirley Cowan, and my ability to charm the teachers to Carolyn Hammons.

I, Richard Wilson, will my good looks to Chester Crim, and my dirty locker to anyone who wants to clean it up.

Senior Prophecy

A wise lady came to Uniontown High School the other day. She was carrying a crystal ball and claimed to be a fortune teller. We ask her to sit down and tell us what would become of the Senior Class in the year of 1965, and this is what she saw in the crystal ball.

The long fight of the Hudson Car Factory ended when Richard Adamson signed a contract to be their designer.

Jerry Bradbury is now to owner of the Bradbury Herford Hog Ranch in Iowa.

Warren Chambers is the proud owner of "The Baby Doll Factory" erected in memory of his wife.

Richard Clark is a bouncer in the Lone Star Night Club. He was brought under the spot light when he accidentally bounced his boss, George Holt, into the arms of an awaiting policeman.

Norma Cooney, married to Sherman Walker, who is now spending ten more years with the Air Force, is staying home tending their family of six boys.

Barbara Eisenhouer is planning to run for presidency in the next election. The chances for her winning look very good.

Larry Farrell is playing with the Brooklyn Dodgers and has broken the homer records by hitting 125 this season.

Jo Griffith and her twelve children are now living in a swanky hotel in Las Vagas grieving over George Holt who is now in jail.

Margaret Hammons and Leon Taylor are now living on a cattle ranch in Wyoming and are planning to take a trip to Europe.

Raymon Hartman is a top secret scientist in the H-bomb plant on an unknown island in the Pacific. He is guarded day and night and will return as soon as he is dismissed.

Roger Heckman, acting as the ambassador of the United States to Mexico, recently escaped with his wife, Jean Wright, and their eight children to Russia.

George Holt is the owner of the Lone Star Night Club in Las Vagas He was recently sent up for gambling charges.

Ruth Ann Hunt, a rich and glamorous girl, is the dream of many a man. But Ruth says men are a waste of time and spends all of her evenings in her laboratory making out diets for her fat friends.

Elvin Hunziker has strayed into the North Woods and hasn't been seen yet. It is suspected that he has found a savage woman.

Fred Hunziker is now playing with the Phillip 66 Oilers and is breaking all scoring records.

Esther Ann McKee is the star performer of Don Swisher's dancing girls. In her spare time she runs after men with money.

Nettie Mae Pearson is now in Wichita with her husband, Clifton, and their four girls. Clifton takes care of the children while Nettie makes her frequent trips to Washington D.C.

In the wilds of Africa you will find Richard Ramsey engaged in his favorite passtime, hunting rabbits.

Virginia Ramsey won this years academy award for her outstanding performance in "Lover Boy".

Gilbert Smith wheeled his hotrod to a first place win in the Memorial Day race in Indianapolis in 1965. He was clocked at 289 m.p.h.

Don Swisher and his dancing girls are now booked for two weeks at the Lone Star Night Club in Las Vagas.

Jeane Walker and Mary Lee Williams are gun molls for the jet flier, Albert Ward, secretly known as "two-gun Skeet". They were caught when raiding Fort Knox and jailed. They have escaped and are now running free. BEWARE, they are armed. The first person to bring them in dead or alive will receive a 20,000 dollar reward.

Albert Ward, employed by Bowing Aircraft, recently broke the jet speed record. The speedometer broke when it reached 950 m.p.h.

Richard Wilson is now a world famous lawyer. He recently won a case for Roger Heckman who was charged with being a Russian spy.
